

THOMAS “TOMMY” ANTHONY HOWARD
OCTOBER 2, 1934 — SEPTEMBER 22, 2013

Tommy Howard of Congers, New York died at his home on September 22, 2013.

Tommy grew up in New City, New York surrounded by lots of aunts, uncles, and cousins, and the friendships he formed during childhood would remain for a lifetime. His father died while he was very young and he credits his grandfather, John Eberling, with giving him a home and raising him.

One such special childhood friendship that lasted a lifetime was with the late President/CEO of Babe Ruth League, Inc., Ronald Tellefsen. Tommy and Ron grew up together. They each had a special passion for the game of baseball, having played, coaches and umpired together for many years. When Ron began working for Babe Ruth League, Tommy instantly became a fan and an avid supporter of the program.
